

2.86

Average Rating

Occupations

All

Occupations	Description
Accountants and Auditors	Examine, analyze, and interpret accounting records to prepare financial statements, give advice audit and evaluate statements prepared by others. Install or add on systems of recording costs of other financial and budgetary data.
Actors	Play parts in stage, television, radio, motion picture, or screen productions.

Categories

All

Categories	Sub-Categories	Description
Ability	Number Facility	The ability to add, subtract, multiply, divide quickly and correctly.
Ability	Deductive Reasoning	The ability to apply general rules to specific problems.

